

Some irresponsible companies of the tobacco industry have lost all moral authority with the proliferation of candy-flavored cigarettes. Names like Kauai Kolada, Caribbean Chill and Twista Lime—and the flavors contained in them—are aimed directly at children. To keep our kids safe, I am co-sponsoring legislation \(H.R. 1376\) to give the FDA regulative powers to crack down on candy-flavored cigarettes.